

You're invited

WESTERN SYDNEY
UNIVERSITY

to help build on the website about

Living Well with Global Developmental Delay

<https://globaldevelopmentaldelay.com.au>

Who can join us?

People over 18 years of age who had a diagnosis of Global Developmental Delay when they were a child.

What will you be asked to do?

You can choose what you would like to do. You might like to:

Join the Working Group that will meet on zoom every few months for 2 hours

Join a half day workshop to share your ideas for the website

Tell us about your life for the website. You could be videoed or have an avatar

Work one day a week on the project to help Christine, Danielle and Matthew

You will be paid for your time.

You decide what you share and what to keep private.

You decide how you want to be involved. You can bring a support person with you.

Who is running the project?

The project is run by Christine Johnston, Danielle Tracey and Matthew Breaden from Western Sydney University during 2026 and 2027.

The project is paid for by the Department of Health, Disability and Ageing.

Do you want to know more?

You can ask Matthew questions. His email is m.breaden@westernsydney.edu.au. Matthew can reply by email, talk with you on the phone or video chat.
